THE PROJECT

“Volunteers united in diversity” is a 6-month project that aims to engage the volunteers to youth activities and projects implemented by the hosting organization in the fields of Youth participation, Human Rights and Democracy, Media and Structured Dialogue.

The volunteers will participate to a series of activities that aim to promote youth participation and active engagement within their society, especially to young people who lack of opportunities. Through their involvement, the volunteers will act for the support of the local youth and contribute to the overall aim of the host organisation which is to improve young people’s everyday life.

THE HOSTING ORGANIZATION

The Institute of Research and Training on European Affairs- I.R.T.E.A. constitutes a Think Tank in Greece and South Europe, created by specialized young scientists aiming to bridge the gap between the academic knowledge and the society, politics and the business world. Our major goal is to promote structured and open dialogue between the civil society and EU officials and to foster civic engagement, through innovative projects and activities.

I.R.T.E.A.'s advantages include the interaction with both the Greek and the European youth and student community and its activities comprise of youth projects, conferences, Simulations of EU Bodies, Policy Papers' development and other.

Our activities are based on non- formal learning tools and methodology, aiming to promote youth participation, active citizenship and European identity, to foster development of skills and competences and to enhance the professional profile and competitiveness of the participants.
